

Boardmaker Semesterware

The Boardmaker Semesterware program is designed for college and university professors training special education, assistive technology, and speech pathology students to give their students free access to Boardmaker as part of their coursework while they are enrolled in your institution.

Give your students FREE access to Boardmaker 7

Plus, bonus teaching resources:

Make Each Part of a Plant
Use this activity to make each part of a plant. Then label the parts.

Materials

1. cardboard stock/ construction paper	5. clear tape
2. muffin wrappers	6. scissors
3. seeds	7. green felt
4. pipe cleaners (green and brown)	8. marker

First Day of School

The teacher is waiting, now it's time to meet.

How will you say "Hello" today?

About It
Practise with dose for variety oriented greeting
Who We're For (BoardConnect)

What
This activity is designed to help students learn and use various ways to say hello and other social greetings, including using a name, greeting another person, and using a name. It also includes a section on how to say hello in different languages.

How
Use this to practise in a classroom and school setting. It can also be used in a one-on-one setting. The teacher can demonstrate how to say hello in different ways, and the student can practise saying hello back.

Where
Use this to practise in a classroom and school setting. It can also be used in a one-on-one setting. The teacher can demonstrate how to say hello in different ways, and the student can practise saying hello back.

When
Use this to practise in a classroom and school setting. It can also be used in a one-on-one setting. The teacher can demonstrate how to say hello in different ways, and the student can practise saying hello back.

Community Link
Community link: www.tobiidynavox.com/learning-hub

Tips
Practise saying hello in different ways, such as using a name, greeting another person, and using a name. Encourage the student to practise saying hello in different ways, such as using a name, greeting another person, and using a name.

Created By Key Learning
Created by Key Learning (Tobiidynavox) on 10/10/2020
Updated by Key Learning
Created on 10/10/2020
Updated on 10/10/2020

1. wave	2. dance	3. nod	4. Air hugs
5. thumbs up	6. high five	7. "Hello"	8. wave of another day

Activities-to-Go

Celebrations Content

The Boardmaker Idea Book

The best way to get started?

Our Learning Hub has everything you need to get started with Boardmaker and AAC. With curated learning paths and on-demand resources, you'll jump in with both feet and start creating visual supports, interactive learning materials, and more!

Explore our course specifically designed for professors and university students enrolled in the program.

