

Sono Flex Mobile Application EOS Notification

Sono Flex – Global End of Service Notification – June 17, 2025

Tobii Dynavox is announcing the End of Service of the Sono Flex mobile application. As of July 17, 2025, Sono Flex will no longer be available for download from the Apple app store. Please note this change only affects the standalone mobile app. Sono Flex will remain available as a page set within Communicator 5.

We encourage current Sono Flex mobile app users to explore other available products, such as TD Snap.

For further information regarding the End of Service, please reach out to Tobii Dynavox Customer Support.
